GRAPE EXPECTATIONS

Wine Review: 2012 Zanon Dry Creek Valley Zinfandel

- Wine: 2012 Zanon Dry Creek Valley Zinfandel
- Price: $18.99
- Aroma: a plethora of Zinfandel-style scents of cane and bramble
- Flavor: mulberry; dried stone fruit; hints of evergreen aromatics, with oak there but not in the way; tannic and balanced finish
- Notes: This is the second vintage of Upper Arlington wine-meister Scott Zanon's homage to his memories of what California zinfandels once achieved. His wine evokes the era before so many California varieties began tasting alike and losing their balance.
