

The Columbus Dispatch

Wednesday, March 20, 2019

GRAPE EXPECTATIONS

Wine Review: 2016 Zanon Dry Creek Valley Old Vine Zinfandel

- Wine: 2016 Zanon Dry Creek Valley Old Vine Zinfandel
- Price: $19.99
- Aroma: Complex blend of cane fruit and plums, mushrooms and judicious oak
- Flavor: Equally complex in the mouth, showing raspberry and blackberry along with grapey balancing acidity, restrained wood and a long finish with reassuring tannins
- Notes: This is the new release of Columbus-based wine negociant Scott Zanon's zinfandel, made in the balanced style he favors but which is increasingly rare. Without doubt, a winner not only for zin lovers but for anyone seeking a full-bodied red that can be drunk now or aged in the cellar.

— Jon Christensen, Dispatch Wine Reviewer

